

Year 6 Class Readers

Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 3	Spring 4	Summer 5	Summer 6
Writing with links to history and geography topics: NCR and Traditional Tales Ancient Greeks and North & South America.		Warning story, NCR and variety of narratives. The Plague and World War Two Animals including humans		Variety of English genres The Tudors and Climate Change Living things and their habitats and Evolution
Greek Warriors! By Chris Blake (176 pages) Links to our Greek topic. Use of imagery and figurative language and cohesive devices. The story of the 'Trojan Horse' also supports English writing.	The Goldfish Boy by Lisa Thompson (400 pages) Ashley Booth Y6 reading spine. PSHE links and themes of mental health – child with OCD solves a mystery!	Kay's Anatomy by Adam Kay (416 pages) Non-fiction book based on the human body. Links to science and PSHE topics, as well as RSE. The information provided also allows for support with writing non-fiction texts in English.	Letters from the Lighthouse by Emma Carroll (288 pages) Ashley Booth Y6 reading spine. Set in WW2 and based on evacuees. Writing in the style of an author and using appropriate vocabulary and shifts of formality.	Can You See Me? By Libby Scott and Rebecca Westcott (368 pages) Ashley Booth Y6 reading spine. PSHE links – child with autism moves up to secondary school. Great for discussions around transition.	Stormbreaker by Anthony Horowitz (238 pages) Transition with St Joseph's – chn will continue to read and work on this in Year 7. Spies, mystery, action and adventure. Main character builds confidence and steps out of his comfort zone.
Holes by Louis Sachar (240 pages) Ashley Booth Y6 reading spine. The teachers love this book and enjoy sharing it every year! PSHE links – debates and discussions about rules and equality. Theme of having a protagonist and antagonist supports English writing.			Once by Morris Gleitzman (160 pages) Ashley Booth Y6 reading spine. Set in WW2 – links to history topic about the war.		The Final Year by Matt Goodfellow (288 pages) Transition focus in readiness for secondary – following the story of a fictional character during his last year at primary school and the changes that he is experiencing.